

May's

Top Ten

Wine Values

Hand-selected for their balance of quality and price, we think these food-friendly wines are perfect for holiday gatherings and everyday enjoyment.

Carne Humana White Blend California

Aromas of citrus blossom, melon and pineapple are followed by complex flavors of tropical fruit and a subtle flinty note. Definitely a steal at this price! Tasty with chicken dishes or veggie salads.

~~$26.99~~..now $8.99

SPN Red Blend Spain

This value wine may be easy-drinking, but it is definitely not simple. Red fruits and spice combine with chewy tannins and bright acidity. Perfect for Tex-Mex or a bowl of hearty chili.

~~$8.99~~..now $7.99

Val Joanis Rosé France

Fresh berries, roses and a touch of spice are complemented by a lovely creamy mouthfeel. Extremely versatile, this wine can be enjoyed by itself or paired with everything from grilled salmon to caprese salad.

~~$12.99~~..now $10.99

Tenuta Sassoregale Sangiovese Italy

A wild nose of forest berries, herbs and earth almost makes you feel like you are walking through the Tuscan countryside. The palate brings cherries, vanilla and clove. For sausage or pizza.

~~$18.99~~..now $16.99

ARBOR FARMS
MARKET

10% off any six, 15% off any twelve bottles wine discount

Airfield Estates Riesling Washington

A bouquet of flowers and citrus give way to flavors of stonefruit, grapefruit and melon. Subtle sweetness is balanced by bracing acidity. Pair with Asian cuisine or spicy dishes.

~~$16.99~~..now $11.99

Hess Select Pinot Noir California

Aromas of crushed ripe cherries and sandalwood precede red fruit and soft spice flavors. The silky texture enrobes your palate all the way through the long finish. Try it with roast pork.

~~$19.99~~..now $17.99

Angeline Sauvignon Blanc California

Fresh and racy, with notes of green apple, lemon zest, white peach and wheatgrass. The zippy finish makes it a great match for seafood, salads or goat cheeses.

~~$13.99~~..now $12.99

Domaine des Pasquiers Cotes du Rhone France

Dark and brooding, with blackberries, wild herbs, earth and a slight savory note of bacon. Hefty tannins are present, but will smooth out with time in the glass. Pair with lamb.

~~$12.99~~..now $11.99

Chateau du Trignon Roussanne France

This is one of our favorite white grapes, which is unusual to find under $20. Rich and round, yet with good acidity. Complex flavors of apricot, honeysuckle, white flowers and green almond. Enjoy with fish or chicken.

~~$18.99~~..now $14.99

Beran Zinfandel California

This aromatic and full-bodied wine is reminiscent of blueberry and blackberry jam mixed with dark chocolate. Vanilla, clove and pepper add more layers to the balanced finish. Nice with BBQ.

~~$39.99~~..now $17.99

ARBOR FARMS
MARKET