Ravenswood Petite Sirah California

*“Quoth the raven,
'Nevermore.’” Big, bold flavors of blackberry, blueberry, and dark chocolate wrapped in soft tannins. Tasty with Korean-style ribs or a BLT sandwich.*

~~$12.99~~..now $11.99

Velvet Devil Merlot Washington

Flavors of chocolate-covered berries and bittersweet cocoa mingling with hints of smoke and cedar. Soft tannins linger on the palate. Invite the devil to your next party and serve with everything from steak to pizza.

Bodegas Ateca Garnacha de Fuego Spain

Grown not in the fiery depths, but on hillsides 3,000 feet above sea level. Crushed cherries and red plums give way to a spicy white pepper finish. Fun with fajitas and other Tex-Mex fare.

~~$10.99~~..now $8.99

Leelanau Cellars Witches Brew Michigan

A secret blend of grapes enhanced with cinnamon, cloves and nutmeg. Perfect for sipping warm in front of a fire on a chilly fall evening. It just might put a spell on you!

~~$9.99~~..now $6.99

The Seven Deadly Zins Zinfandel California

The sinful temptation of brambly berries and vanilla will make you lust for more! A lush mouthfeel and long finish add to the pleasure. Pair with burgers or BBQ and forgive us our Zins.

Dansk Mjød Viking Blod Denmark

Drinking blood has never been sweeter! Based on a recipe from around 1700, this honey wine is blended with hibiscus and hops. Fragrant floral notes combine with citrus and loads of honey. Sip with a shortbread cookie.
