

February's

Top Ten

Wine Values

Hand-selected for their balance of quality and price, we think these food-friendly wines are perfect for holiday gatherings and everyday enjoyment.

Ryder
Chardonnay
California

Medium-bodied with crisp acidity, the flavors are rich, ripe and tropical with notes of white peach, Asian pear, vanilla and honeyed oak. This would make a great pairing with a rotisserie chicken from the deli.

~~$13.99~~..now $10.99

Ch. Moncontour
Vouvray
France

100% Chenin Blanc made in the traditional method. Apricot aromas followed by white flowers, baked apple and brioche flavors. Enjoy with salty appetizers or slightly spicy foods.

~~$19.99~~..now $15.99

Toi Toi
Rosé
New Zealand

What a steal at this price! Fresh flavor abounds with summer berry fruits, orange citrus and a hint of yellow plum. A tasty match with chicken salad or Asian cuisine.

~~$15.99~~..now $7.99

Chateau Coupe Roses
Minervois
France

This wine is all about the garrigue underbrush of the high Minervois, laced with high-toned blueberry notes and underpinned with juicy crushed raspberries. Terrific with lamb.

~~$15.99~~..now $14.99

ARBOR FARMS
MARKET

10% off any six, 15% off any twelve bottles wine discount

Seven Hills Merlot Washington

Loaded with dark red fruits accentuated with vanilla and baking spices. The finish is supple yet firm, with integrated tannins. A grilled steak would pair nicely.

~~$29.99~~..now $17.99

Haut Poitou Sauvignon Blanc France

From the southwestern Loire Valley, this Sauvignon Blanc is full of citrus fruit flavors, lifted herbaceous aromatics, and cleansing acidity. Lovely with all sorts of seafood dishes or fresh goat cheeses.

~~$11.49~~..now $10.99

Leeuwenkuil Grenache Blanc South Africa

Apple skin and beeswax lead the way to melon, barely ripe strawberry and stone fruit. Lushly textured, good acidity, and great with creamy pasta or baked chicken.

~~$22.99~~..now $13.99

Frescobaldi di Remole Italy

A juicy, fruity crowd pleaser. Mostly Sangiovese, this is packed with berry fruit and tart cherry notes. Spice and anise come in on the finish. Perfect for pasta or pizza!

~~$11.99~~..now $9.99

MAN Chenin Blanc South Africa

Fresh stone fruit and apple flavors are backed by zesty acidity and minerality. This is a versatile match for poultry, shellfish and vegetable dishes, or just a chilled glass of wine and a book.

~~$10.99~~..now $8.99

Ch. Les Mingets Sauternes France

Saving the dessert for last...this is a concentrated, luscious dessert wine showing intense flavors of caramelized fruits, pear, melon and almond, all balanced by good acidity. Chocolate strawberries, anyone?

~~$16.99~~..now $15.99

ARBOR FARMS
MARKET