2024 Stark-Condé Field Blend - Consistently one of our favorite South African wineries, the story of Stark-Condé is of a blended family, with roots in South Africa, Japan, the U.S. and Cuba. Their fantastic white field blend is a combination of Roussanne, Chenin Blanc, Verdelho and Viognier barrel-fermented in neutral French oak. White peaches, lime zest, ripe pears, green almond and minerals with a saline finish. Enjoy with crab cakes or roasted chicken.

2024 Casale del Giglio 'Satrico' Lazio Bianco - Located 50 kilometers south of Rome, Casale del Giglio was founded in 1967 in an area without a viticultural tradition. This enabled the Santarelli family to embark on research and experimentation with different grape varieties. Chardonnay, Sauvignon and Trebbiano Giallo grapes are kept in stainless steel for a fresh, aromatic wine. Fragrant, with passionfruit and hop aromas. It is weighty on the palate, offering flavors of rich stone fruit and citrus. A good match for seafood or salads.
