Hand-selected for their balance of quality and price, we think these food-friendly wines are perfect for holiday gatherings and everyday enjoyment.

Chateau Bela
Riesling
Slovakia

An ancient property on the banks of the Danube, the first vines were planted by the Romans. Notes of crisp apple, citrus, tropical fruit and hints of petrol mingle on the elegant, dry palate. Lovely with Asian cuisine.

Chante Cigale
Cicada
France

This Rhone Valley gem offers a lot of bang for the buck! Ripe raspberries and blackberries with a touch of wild herbs. Sausage or skirt steak with herbs de provence would be a nice complement.

Da Luca
Prosecco
Italy

Fun and fresh, with loads of bright citrus flavors, followed by stone fruit and pineapple notes. The finish brings a mild salinity that refreshes the palate. Tasty with all kinds of appetizers.

$16.99..now $11.99

Campo Viejo
Rioja Reserva
Spain

Aromas of cherries, cloves and tobacco precede flavors of black plums, subtle vanilla and toasted oak. Very easy to pair with everything from Tex-Mex to holiday dishes.

Dom. de Gravennes Cotes du Rhone France

Made from some of this small producer's best old-vine vineyards. Full-bodied, with deep berry fruit, earth, minerals and garrigue. A pleasure to drink now, but made to age as well. Perfect for lamb.

~~$17.99~~..now $15.99

Planeta Chardonnay Italy

A great splurge wine from a fantastic producer! Toasted spice and apricot are followed by honey and poached pear. A dab of butterscotch comes in on the long finish. Delicious with roast chicken.

~~$47.99~~..now $34.99

Malabaila Roero Arneis Italy

100% Arneis from Piedmont. White flower notes lead into melon, yellow peaches and green apples. Excellent as an aperitif, or with seafood and pasta dishes.

~~$16.99~~..now $14.99

Sanctuary Pinot Noir California

From Santa Barbara County, this pinot is bursting with bright cherry, strawberry, herbs, subtle spice and vanilla. Smooth and elegant, it is a good match for pork or salmon dishes.

~~$29.99~~..now $15.99

Andrew Will Sauvignon Blanc Washington

A touch of Semillon makes this a richer style, with a little oak for additional texture. Honeydew melon and toasty brioche unfold into citrus, lemon plum and minerals. Try it with a chicken salad croissant.
