2025 La Spinetta Toscana Vermentino - La Spinetta makes fantastic wines in both Piedmont and Tuscany and this wine is no exception. Aromatic, with a nose of fragrant citron, wildflowers and ripe peaches. Flavors of grapefruit, crisp apples, ginger and minerals follow, finishing with pleasant salinity. Pair with appetizers, vegetable salads or seafood dishes. $24.99

2024 Höpler Pinot Blanc - This family-owned winery is located on the shore of Lake Neusiedl, where wine has been made since Roman times. The Cistercian monks brought Burgundian grape varietals to the area in the 13th century. A versatile wine, with notes of ripe apricots, honeysuckle, Marcona almonds and subtle flint. A terrific match for poultry, crab cakes or roasted squash. $19.99

2023 Maison Henri & Gilles Buisson Bourgogne Blanc - The Buissons have been winegrowers in the village of Saint-Romain since 1758. Located to the west of some of the more famous Burgundy vineyards, the cooler climate gives a longer growing season and refreshing acidity. Complex, with orchard fruits, chamomile, wet stones and slight toast. This downright delicious wine will be great with grilled chicken or a creamy pasta. $39.99

2023 Au Bon Climat "La Bauge Au-dessus" Pinot Noir - Jim Clendenen was a pioneer in making great Pinot Noir and Chardonnay in California and his children have carried on his legacy. Translated to a "wild party upstairs" this wine is made to be balanced and enjoyable from day one. Red berries, black tea, sarsaparilla, loam and leather with supple tannins. Lovely with pork tenderloin, duck or a roasted beet salad. $39.99

2021 Araldica "Alasia" Barbaresco - This co-operative of 180 growers was founded in 1954. Alasia is a blend of their best barrels and it shows. An expressive nose of ripe cherries, rose petals and forest floor precedes a palate of cherry compote and fresh figs. The tannins are structured yet fine and the finish is lasting. Enjoy with braised meats or a wild mushroom tart. $29.99

2022 Clos de Mez "La Dot" Fleurie - Produced from a small plot of 50+ year old vines inherited from winemaker Marie-Élodie's grandmother. Perfumed aromas of blackberries, violets and graphite give way to intriguing flavors of black plums, marionberries, wild thyme and warm stones. Each sip leaves you wanting more. Wonderful with herb-roasted white meats or sausages baked with potatoes and fennel. $34.99
